

Henley MSc in Coaching & Behavioural Change

Application Process for Discounted Places

Charities

Henley Business School is pleased to offer two places for employees of charities, discounted at 50%, on the 2020 intake of the MSc in Coaching & Behavioural Change (MSc12).

To be eligible, applicants must:

- Have submitted an approved application for the 2020 intake of the MSc in Coaching & Behavioural Change (MSc12). Please see website for entry requirements and application process.
- Be a paid employee of a UK registered charity
- Have the financial support of their organisation.

To apply, applicants should submit:

- MScCBC Charity Discount application form
- 600 word opinion piece on How do I intend to positively impact my organisation through coaching and behaviour change?
- 100 word personal statement on why you believe you should be allocated a discounted place
- CV
- Supporting letter from the employer confirming employment status, the UK registered charity number and the financial support of the organisation.

Submissions should be made in Word format and emailed to exec@henley.ac.uk by midnight on Monday 1st June 2020.

Please note:

- Applicants who have not previously taken the Professional Certificate in Executive Coaching will be required to join the September 2020 (2) CICOSE20 intake starting 14 September 2020 (see website for full dates)
- We welcome applications from multiple employees of individual charities, however we will only be able to allocate one discounted place per charity per intake
- Full price places on the MSc are subject to availability and we cannot guarantee that unsuccessful charity applicants will be allocated a full price place.

Applications will be reviewed by the MSc Programme Director and successful applicants will be notified by 30th June 2020.
