

War and Peace in Organizational Memory
Workshop for the Special Issue of Management and Organizational History
Tuesday 12th December
Henley Business School, University of Reading, Whiteknights, Reading, UK

Welcome 10:00 and coffee

Session 1: 10:30-12:00

Howard Cox	'Good War/Bad War: A War to Remember, a War to Forget?'
Chris Corker	'Patriots, profiteers or martyrs? Sheffield armaments manufactures and the changing narratives of war and peace'.

Lunch: 12:00-13:00

Session 2: 13:00-14:30

Andrea Schneider	'Uses of history and memory within German firms'.
David Paulson	'British and Germany SMEs and their memories of war: a comparative approach'.

Coffee 14:30-14:45

Session 3: 14:45-16:15

Barbara Hahn	Conflicting Commemorations: Civil War Memorialization, Past and Present
Sigfrido Ramirez Perez	'From the 'Taxi of the Marne' to nationalization to liberation: the journey of Renault through WWI and WWII and its impact on organizational memory'.

Coffee: 16:15-16:30

Session 4: 16:30-17:30

Ian Austin	Civil War and the Franco-Prussian War on Meiji Japanese Policy and Institutional-Organisational Design
Vicky Barnes	Bank of England and war memorials

Dinner 19:00