Format

We're designing the Henley Forum 23rd Annual Conference as a hybrid event. At the same time, we're keeping a close eye on how the world is changing around us. We'll keep you updated on any changes to our program or format. But whatever the format, we guarantee a high-quality event with lots of energy, international perspectives and spaces for reflection, interaction and learning.

If in the event we move to fully virtual we will refund anything over and above the virtual ticket price.
